|-----------------|---|---|--|
| 6 Points | Can you plan and make a Tudor feast? Include some of the ingredients you would need. Are there any surprises? | Create a board game linked to the Tudors. This game could be linked to any board game you like (for example you could make a Tudor monopoly or even a Tudor deck of cards). | Get Creative! Draw a self-portrait in the style of a Tudor artist. Use pencils, paints, crayons, whatever you have to hand. |
| 5 Points | Using resources you have at home, create your own Tudor building. (cereal boxes etc) | Create a plan for getting Henry VIII in shape! Present your plan in any way you like. | Visit one of the many Tudor historical sites in the midlands, such as Blakesley Hall (Yardley) Shakespeare's Birthplace (Stratford) or any of the places on this site: https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/features/tudor-links-in-the-midlands . Create a photo, video or written diary/recount of your day and your learning. |
| 4 Points | Make a mnemonic or song to recall the order of Henry VIII wives. | Write a poem (minimum of 10 lines) describing what life was like in Tudor Britain. | Find out about some of the punishments given out by the 'Torturing Tudors'. Create a poster showing several crimes (of different severities) and the punishment that would have been issued. |
| 3 Points | Make up a quiz with facts about the Tudors. Make sure you have the answers! | PSHE link- With a friend create a piece of drama that demonstrates how to be assertive towards your friend without being rude. This can be performed in class or filmed and sent in. | Create a graph that shows how long each of Henry VIII's lived for. What information can you get from your graph? |
