CHILLI CHALLENGE HOMEWORK

Choose your homework from the menu below. the peri-ometer shows you the level of challenge. You need to reach a minimum of ten points to achieve your homework target for the half term!

6 Points	Make a model of something linked to WWII – you can use any medium to produce this e.g clay, paint, scrap materials.	Create a game that children might have played during WWII. Write a set of instructions to teach others in the class how to play it.	Write a dinner menu only using ingredients available during rationing and cook it for your family. Take photos to show us whether they enjoyed it!
5 Points	Make do and Mend. Can you use something old to create something new? Take photos of the process.	Listen to the morale boosting music from the 1940s and write your own song to support your troops.	Create a propaganda poster with a list of rules to tell people how to stay safe during the blackouts. Why do we need rules/laws? What might happen if we don't follow them? Is it ever ok to break a rule?
4 Points	Find out the cost of rationed items. How much would you spend on a week's food?	WILD CARD! Complete a piece of WWII themed homework of your choice – it can be absolutely anything that captures your interest.	Visit your local library and find information books about WWII – find and copy 10 facts that you find interesting.
3 Points	Draw 6 things that you would take with you if you were an evacuee – explain why you would take each item.	Write a message in Morse code.	Draw/trace a map of the world and mark the countries that were involved in the Second World War.
